To whom it may concern:

This letter is being written in enthusiastic support of Brandon Smith's employment with your organization.

Since beginning work as editor of the Wilmington News Journal, it has been my pleasure to know and work with Brandon. He is a young man of outstanding character. He gets along well with others, and his dedication and enthusiasm for the work of reporting the news and informing the community are infectious in our Editorial Department.

Brandon was entrusted with a wide range of important beats in our news coverage. He offered numerous suggestions for articles to pursue. He covered Wilmington City Police, Municipal Court, school boards and village councils within our county. Brandon also did extensive general assignment work, some of which involved investigative and analytical reports, including a comprehensive look at the progress of cleaning up a Superfund hazardous waste site in the region. Brandon's reports were accurate, complete and well written.

I also found Brandon to be organized and reliable. He was polite and effective in working with the public and customers of the newspaper.

Brandon Smith will make an outstanding addition to the staff of a news organization fortunate enough to hire him. If I can provide more information or be of any further assistance, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Best regards,

Dan Liggett
